

Thomas HALL Baritone

The American baritone Thomas Hall started his musical career as a professional French horn player and decided only later on to become a singer.

He was twice finalist in the Chester Ludgin Verdi Baritone Competition, his first roles had been Germont in "Traviata", Don Carlo in "Forza del destino", Posa in "Don Carlo" and Carlos in "Ernani".

He sang in "Rigoletto" with the Ann Arbor Symphony, Luna in Monterrey, Mexico, and Bonze in "Butterfly" at Madison Opera.

His concert repertoire includes Handel's "Messiah", 9^o Beethoven, "Elijah" and "St. Paul" by Mendelssohn, Fauré Requiem, Dvorak's "Te Deum", Puccini's "Messa di Gloria", and "Carmina Burana". Recent concert appearances include Brahms' "Deutsches Requiem" with the Wichita Symphony and Vaughan-Williams "A Sea Symphony" in Chicago.

He made his most successful European debut as Telramund in "Lohengrin" at the Savonlinna Opera with very favorable reviews. The Finnish newspaper Aamulehti said of his performance, "Thomas Hall as Telramund oozed physical activeness and powerful singing," and Uutispäivä reported, "Thomas Hall is impressive in the part of Friedrich, his baritone was... striking." He sang also the role of Flying Dutchman in Savonlinna.

He sang the title role of "Flying Dutchman" at Teatro Regio in Turin, Jochanaan at Norske Opera in Oslo, Flying Dutchman and Scarpia in Bologna, Telramund and Abimelech in "Samson and Dalila" at Festival of Savonlinna, Telramund in Warsaw, Flying Dutchman in Hong Kong, in Pavia, Cremona and Brescia and "Feuersnot" in Palermo.

Recent and future engagements through the 2024/25 season include Telramund in Hong Kong and in Warsaw, Orest in Bologna, Kurwenal in Athens, both Wotane with Mo. Kuhn in Erl, both Wotane, Wanderer, Barak, "Viaggio a Reims", "Les Troyens" and High Priest in "Samson et Dalila" in Kiel, Jochanaan in Copenhagen, "Walküre" Wotan at Grange Park Opera, Telramund in Seoul, Flying Dutchman in Warsaw, at a summer Festival in Sweden and in Sydney, Lindorf, Coppelius, Miracle, Dapertutto at Festival Klosterneuburg / Vienna, Jochanaan in Innsbruck and Kaiserslautern, "Rheingold" and "Walküre" Wotan in Wiesbaden, Flying Dutchman and Jochanaan in Karlsruhe, Walküren Wotan in Sofia and Telramund at Met New York.