

Zlata KHERSHBERG Mezzo

Zlata Khershberg is born in Nizhny Novgorod, Russia. She started to play the piano at an early age and received her diploma with honors from the Balakirev Music College in Russia and Bachelor degree in opera singing from the Buchmann-Mehta School of Music, Tel Aviv University, under the guidance of Prof. Sharon Rostorf-Zamir.

She took part in the International Vocal Arts Institute Opera Workshop, where she performed Olga in „Eugene Onegin“ and Marcellina in “Nozze di Figaro“.

Ms. Khershberg was chosen to perform in the Gala of the Outstanding Students of the Buchmann-Mehta School of Music at the Charles Bronfman Auditorium in Tel Aviv, this concert was conducted by Zubin Mehta. She performed in the Prize Winners' Concert of the International Mozarteum Summer Academy at the Salzburg Festival and 2017/18 at the “Neue Stimmen” concert in Gütersloh with Mo. Graeme Jenkins.

Ms. Khershberg sang the role of Clairon in a version of The Vienna-Tel Aviv Vocal Connection “Impresario”, with the Israel Chamber Orchestra, conducted by Stanley Sperber.

Recent and future engagements through the 2025/26 season include Dorabella at Bolshoi Theatre in Moscow, Bach Magnificat and Bernstein's Symphony No. 1 “Jeremiah” with Jerusalem Symphony Orchestra, Sesto in “La clemenza di Tito” and 3° Dame in “Zauberflöte” at Meitar Opera Studio in Tel Aviv, 9° Beethoven and Messa in C major” in Haifa, “Trouble in Tahiti” in Israel, “Die Passagierin” at New Israeli Opera in Tel Aviv, Jezibaba, Geschwitz, Romeo, Suzuki, Olga, Giulietta in “Hoffmann”, Kostelnica in “Jenufa” in Heidelberg, Bernstein's “Jeremiah” in Palermo, 9° Beethoven and “A Survivor from Warsaw” in Wiesbaden and “Pique Dame”, “Nozze di Figaro” and Eboli at Festival Heidenheim.