

Viktor RUD Baritone

The Ukrainian baritone Viktor Rud initially studied conducting at the Tchaikovsky Academy of Music in his native town of Kiev before moving to London to pursue his vocal studies at the Royal Academy of Music, completing his studies at the National Opera Studio in Kiev. He is recipient of several awards including the Marilyn Horne Foundation Prize, the William Matheus Sullivan Prize, the International Mozart Competition Prize and the Opera Rara Bel Canto Prize.

As a member of the Berlin State Opera Studio, he appeared as Mr. Astley in Prokofiev's "The Gambler" with Mo. Barenboim, Mamma Agata in "Viva la Mamma", Silvano in "Ballo in maschera", Morales in "Carmen", and in "Eugen Onegin".

Until 2017 was a permanent soloist of the State Opera in Hamburg, where his roles include Figaro "Barbiere di Siviglia", Guglielmo, Count in "Nozze di Figaro", Oreste in Gluck 'Iphigenie en Tauride', Poeta in 'Il Turco in Italia', Harlequin, Silvio, Schaubard, Falke, Ned Keene, Agamemnon in 'La belle Hélène', Alex Duval in Brett Dean's 'Bliss'. Fernando in "Almira", Lord Byron in Reimann's 'Unrevealed', Luna in 'Palestrina' and Hiroto in 'Stilles Meer'.

He was a member of the Montblanc Young Singers project at the Salzburg Festival and covered Mercutio in "Roméo et Juliette" and Papageno and sang Papageno at the Royal Academy of Music in London with Sir Colin Davis.

He also appeared as Mr. Astley in Prokofiev's "The Gambler" at Scala Milano in "Fidelio" with Daniel Barenboim in a European tour including the Proms at the Royal Albert Hall, London, the Salzburg Festival and the Teatro Maestranza, Sevilla.

Last and future contracts until 2022/23 include "Boheme" in Graz and in Leipzig, Guglielmo in Hannover, Herr Fluth in "Lustige Weiber von Windsor" at Festival Klosterneuburg/Vienna, "Viva la Mamma" in Dresden, "Almira" at Festival of Alte Musik in Innsbruck, "Barbiere di Siviglia", "La Fanciulla del West" and Monteverdi's "Orfeo" in Leipzig, Eisenstein in "Fleder-maus" in Baden Switzerland, "La belle Hélène", "Carmen", "La Fanciulla del West" and "Ritorno d' Ulisse in Patria" in Hamburg, "Freischütz" in Berlin, "Krieg, stell dir vor, er wäre hier" in Gießen, Eisenstein in Cologne and concerts at Staatsoper Berlin, in Hamburg, Kiev, Bilbao, Udine, Trieste and Brescia.

He appears regularly in concerts and oratorio with his repertoire including pieces like Orff's "Carmina Burana", Mendelssohn's "Elijah", Faure and Duruflé Requiem, in venues including the Royal Albert Hall, London and Philharmonic Hall, Berlin.